

✚ vCISO, vCIO, vCCO AS-A-SERVICE

Supplementing leadership in technology, security and compliance means enhanced expertise, innovation, increased efficiency, and reducing overall costs to an organization.

The Withum cyber team provides a full-scale solution for a virtual Chief Information Security Officer (vCISO), virtual Chief Information Officer (vCIO), and virtual Chief Compliance Officer (vCCO) as-a-service. As a trusted advisor, we take Withum’s expertise in the industry and a realistic risk-based approach to develop, implement, support, and align your business’ information technology, cyber security, and regulatory requirements to the business’ objectives and its investment on technology. Our expertise covers all varieties of business and can be supplemented into ongoing or newly developed programs or to provide an independent assessment of the current technology, security and/or regulatory strategy to industry expectations.

Despite massive investments of management time and money, innovation remains a frustrating pursuit in many companies.

KEY FOCUS AREAS THE vCISO, vCIO, vCCO AS-A-SERVICE PROVIDES:

- Increase Efficiency: Utilize the leadership of a vCISO, vCIO, and vCCO along with a complete information security and data privacy team to build processes, implement controls and identify areas for increased opportunity to lower the organization’s overall risk. Outsourcing your security and data privacy program helps your organization build an effective program, fill critical gaps, eliminates groupthink, enhances innovation, and reduces overall headcount.
- Immediate Impact: Working with a skilled team with vast expertise in tailoring and launching information technology, security and/or data privacy initiatives ensures your program is completely built and operating quickly by aligning organizations to industry regulations/standards such as NIST, ISO, GDPR, CCPA, NY-SHIELD, and many more. It provides immediate highly experienced and proven leadership to assume controls of projects and initiatives.
